

CAMBRIDGE

Executive Learning China

Cambridge University excellence for China

Leadership for Tomorrow: A Training Program for China's Future Corporate Leaders

“Change is the law of life—and those who look only to the past or present are certain to miss the future” - John F. Kennedy

Cambridge Executive Learning China™ presents a unique opportunity to undertake a Certificate Leadership Program that focuses on issues that are fundamentally reshaping the world of business. Participants in the program will learn the leadership skills necessary to carry themselves and their organizations through uncertain times, and into the future.

This program is designed and led by Professor Alan Barrell of the Judge Business School at Cambridge University. Professor Barrell is supported by China business consultant and author of Think Like Chinese, Ms. Zhang Haihua, and leading China corporate trainer, Ms Wang Meilin. Together, these three trainers have developed a course tailored to the needs of China's future business leaders.

Who Should Attend?

This program has been designed for senior managers who have been identified as future leaders within their organizations or who aspire to corporate leadership roles.

Cities and Dates

Beijing — 6-7 July 2009

Guangzhou — 9-10 July 2009

Fees

The program fee is RMB15,000, inclusive of full two-day program, all training materials, snacks, lunches and dinners for the two day program.

Fees do not include travel and accommodation.

Further Information & Registration

For further information or to register, please contact Ms Jane Sun:

jane.sun@accapitalpr.com

Tel.: (010) 6580 3900

Registration by application only.

Program Benefits

- A focus on critical issues of our time
- Insights into executive leadership from a Cambridge Professor
- Opportunities to develop your own leadership skills
- Formal and informal opportunities for discussion and networking with peers from around China.

All participants earn a formal certificate on completion of the program.

www.cambridgeexecutivelearning.com